Raleigh, Sept. 26, 1872.

REBUKE THE FRAUDS.

It is the imperative duty of every opponent of Radicalism in North Carolina to rebuke the frauds practiced in the August election in this State, by going to the polls on the fifth day of November, and voting against the re-election of Grant.

This is no time for inaction and apathy. This is no time to be folding the arms in slumber and allowing the election to go by default.

The Democrats and Conservatives feel morally certain that at least five thousand fraudulent and illegal votes were cast for the Radicals last August.

Besides those who were intimidated and threatened by Revenue officers; besides those who remained at home for fear of indignity and prosecution under Ku Klux laws; besides those who were bought up by Federal patronage and the Radical corruption fund; besides those who were imported from Virginia, South Carolina and Washington City, to vote in this State, there is a well settled conviction in the public mind, that thousands of illegal votes were cast by negroes under twenty-one years of age, who were in many instances permitted to vote, because, although the pollholders were morally convinced that they were not of age, there was no re-bute testimony to the contrary.

For various reasons, the Radicals will not be able to exert in the Presidential election the immense power they were able to use in August.

The Presidential election is a general one, and the Government cannot have the opportunity of bringing its tremendous influences to bear upon its State. It will have neither Cabinet officers, nor money, nor imported voters to send to North Carolina.

John Pool will not have an incentive to carry the Legislature. Settle and Dockery will not be candidates for Congress, nor Horngrove for Attorney General. There will be no extra exertions made by these individuals to bring out votes, as in the last election. The great pressure of the Federal Administration having been lifted from the shoulders of our people, they will not have such disadvantages to encounter in November as they had in August.

If North Carolina, with her fifty thousand majority of white men, does not cast her electoral vote against Grant, it will be because of an apathetic indifference which is a crime and treason to the State.

But if the shameful outrages and threatened evils of the reign of Radicalism in National affairs are not enough to bring our people to the polls to vote against Grant, surely their desire to maintain the purity of the ballot-box and free elections ought to force them to the polls, to rebuke the frauds perpetrated in the State election.

If our people stay at home and refuse to vote, it will then be said that all the cry about fraudulent voting in August is sound and fury, signifying nothing, and was merely raised by the Conservatives to mitigate the pangs of their defeat.

If Grant shall carry North Carolina, then it will be claimed that there were no frauds committed, that Caldwell's majority is fair and legitimate, that North Carolina is a Radical State, and that she endorses the crimes of Holden, Caldwell and Grant.

We should carry North Carolina by a handsome majority for Greeley and Brown, in order to rebuke the shameful Radical frauds by which Judge Merrimon was cheated out of his election.

LIGHT AMID DARKNESS.
There is a gleam amid the political darkness which has cast a temporary gloom upon the whole country.

The clouds that obscure Pennsylvania and Ohio are irradiated by rays of victory from Georgia, Connecticut and Indiana.

If the Radicals have carried Pennsylvania in a whoop, the weapons which they used, should be made to pierce their own sides by exciting the indignation and abhorrence of honorable men of all parties.

That pure and gifted statesman, Thomas A. Hendricks, has been elected Governor of Indiana, in the face of the most determined opposition and unblushing frauds by Morton and his followers.

Connecticut, on Monday last, gave the Liberals a glorious majority of seven thousand.

And last, but not least, Georgia thunders with a majority of sixty thousand against Radical corruption.

All is not dark. Hope beckons us on still. Duty, manliness, devotion to principle, honor—all bid us press on, and cast no glance backward.

The cry comes up from all over the country that our friends are not dismayed, but are preparing for the grand attack in November, which is to determine the fate of the nation.

With zeal, with discipline, with unflinching courage, let us seize our banner, while the enemy are shouting in vain boastings over our temporary check; let us rush forward in the thickest of the fight, and wrest victory out of the jaws of defeat!

THE ATTEMPT TO STIFLE THE PRESS.
We publish elsewhere some extracts from our exchanges in regard to the dastardly attempt to stifle the voice of the public press, recently made in this city.

It was supreme folly in the author of the outrage to imagine for a moment that by such a wicked and atrocious act he could destroy the Sentinel's influence and power. Phoenix-like, it will rise up from its ashes, thoroughly armed and equipped—better prepared than ever to battle in the cause of right, of truth, of civil law, of pure Government and for the welfare and honor of North Carolina.

The voice of a free press cannot be drowned by intimidation or violence.
The spirit of hate cannot extinguish it.

Partisan fury and madness, personal vengeance and spite, the torch of the incendiary and the infernal plots of midnight assassins, may destroy the machinery of the printing office, but the freedom of the press cannot thus be stricken down. It will re-assert its power and its majesty. It will spring from the ruins of its demolished temple with new vigor and freshness, like the immortal soul which mounts on wings supernal when the human body, the earthly tabernacle in which it is enshrined, falls to decay and crumbles into dust.

THE GIGANTIC FRAUDS IN PENNSYLVANIA.
Facts have been constantly coming to light since the election, to show that Pennsylvania was carried by a system of the most daring and gigantic frauds ever attempted in any State for country.

The fact that the registered vote of Philadelphia was fifty thousand more than it was at the previous election tells the whole tale and proves incontrovert-ibly that the large majority for Hart-ruff in that city is a swindle and a cheat.

But Philadelphia was not the only locality where frauds were perpetrated. In all the other large cities where the Radicals had control, repeated and imported voters were to be found, contributing to swell Hart-ruff's majority in the State.

But the election of Hart-ruff was not the only, nor by any means the main, purpose of the Cameron Ring.
They had determined to carry the Legislature at all costs, so as to re-elect their chief to the Senate. Hence, it was necessary to practice fraud all over the State, so as to secure a Radical Legislature.

The frauds succeeded. A thief has been elected Governor of Pennsylvania, and Simon Cameron will go to the United States Senate again.

A ghost has startled the inmates of the Alexandria (Va.) jail by his nocturnal appearances.

Paper is king. They are getting up paper beef steaks for cheap boarding houses.

A Wisconsin girl has committed suicide because her hair didn't curl.

LET US STAND BY OUR GUNS.

In the brave language of that excellent paper, the Wilmington Star, we say,
let us stand by our guns.

It is sheer cowardice, because our adversaries have not given up some of their strongholds, for us to ground arms and tamely surrender before the decisive struggle has come.

"The Star" is right. Let us stand by our guns. We cannot compromise with corruption, despotism, crime, Radicalism.

With stout hearts and unquailing courage, let us shout, "Forward!" and let every soldier of the grand army of Constitutional liberty be ready to obey the word of command.

LET US STAND FIRMLY BY OUR GUNS.
Let us yield not one foot of ground but press the enemy at every point. Let us make a gallant fight, and then if we are beaten, we will have no ground to reproach ourselves. We can gain nothing by inaction, and by a base surrender to our political foes.

Let us stand by our guns, and all may yet be right!

THE OUTRAGE TO THE SEN-TINEL—COMMENTS OF THE

[From the Wilmington Star.]
The infamous outrage on the private property of Hon. Josiah Turner, Jr., the particulars of which are given in a special telegram to the Star, should arouse the indignation of every friend of law, liberty and justice in the State.

It is more than an attack upon the private rights of a citizen—it is a deliberate, wanton assault upon the public press, a malignant, diabolical effort to stifle its voice and crush its outspoken, free spirit. It is a desperate state of affairs truly, when a printing office must be blown up with powder to stop the mouths of its conductors. But such lawless ways of carrying a point are eminently in keeping with Radicalism.

Radicals will deny that this outrage was of party inspiration. We will not charge that it was planned in any cau-sus of the Radical party. But we do charge that none but Radicals would wreak such infernal malice on a political adversary, that the authors were indirectly inspired by all the fell teachings of a mischievous, dangerous, lawless party which heretofore has scrupled at the commission of few deeds that it thought would advance its interests or gratify its fierce hate and bitter prejudice.

[From the Richmond Enquirer.] The fiendish act perpetrated yesterday at Raleigh, the brief particulars of which appear among our telegraphic items, has startled this community, as it will carry alarm through the whole South, while it ought to excite just indignation in the breast of every decent citizen in the entire land. The act cannot be mistaken or the motive wrongly interpreted. It was a course of pure and unadorned political outrage. The Sentinel is an outspoken Conservative paper, which has shown no respect for the scoundrels who have robbed and oppressed North Carolina, and its last issue contained very severe denunciations of their villainies, and threatened to continue the righteous war upon them. They could not stand the truth, and so resorted to revenge as the only means of defence. It is fortunate no lives were lost, but this does not mitigate the heinousness of the crime. We sincerely trust, in the interests of peace and justice, that the perpetrators may be speedily discovered and summarily punished. Unheard of crimes of this nature should be visited with no common punishment.

[From the Richmond Dispatch.]
The Hon. Josiah Turner, of Raleigh, has, by his outspoken and unceasing denunciation of the present corrupt Federal Administration, and particularly of its official representative in North Carolina, made enemies of all the carpet baggers, scoundrels and low negroes, who have winced under his editorial lash, as well as in the Raleigh Sentinel.
Hence he has been from time to time imprisoned, driven from home, and shot at in the streets, and now, including that he is to die a natural death. The Radicals have attempted to silence his paper by blowing up his office with gunpowder. The authorities of Raleigh owe it to themselves and to the violated law that the perpetrators of this last outrage shall at any cost be apprehended and punished, and we hope that the good people of North Carolina will see to it that the services of such a valuable and unpurchasable exponent of Conservative principles as the Sentinel shall not be lost to the party for a single day in this campaign.

[From the Wilmington Journal.]
The act of blowing up with powder a building in the heart of a populous city, at that most defenceless of all hours, the hour of midnight, and for no conceivable reason save that it contained the press and fixtures for the publication of a political newspaper, is an act that is difficult to find words to characterize in any becoming manner.
The duty of a public journalist is not to attempt to inflame the passions of men, but rather to restrain and to moderate them.

Acts like that now under consideration, in their bare recital, are more than enough to loose a devil that cannot be chained again. Men cannot contemplate a deed so diabolical and so fiendish without instinctively feeling the strongest desire for retaliation, for vengeance and for protection. Since the world began men never have been subjected to such outrages without seeking, in some shape or other, both vengeance and protection, and they never will.

We counsel obedience to law and respect for its officers, under all circumstances. We cannot better our condition by a resort to violent measures, outside of the law, for the redress of grievances. We know this full well.

[From the Newbern Times, Repub.
We have no language at our command strong enough to express our disapproval of the outrage perpetrated in Raleigh, as reported by the special published in this issue. "The freedom of the press must and shall be maintained," is a maxim of the Republican party, and we cannot believe that any Republican is concerned in this miserable affair.
We hope that a full investigation will be had and the guilty parties be brought to justice.

"LADY FAIRE."

BY THE LATE JOHN MILTON HOLMES.

As unknown ships, long wandering from the shore, Meet for a moment on the midway sea, Exchange a greeting, and are seen no more, Such is my meeting, lady faire, with thee.

And now the time has come for us to part;
But still my humble song shall linger near,
To tell warm wishes for my grateful heart, Like music murmuring in a rose's ear.

The nameless charm of beauty and its grace, Like sunshine kissing into smiles the shade,
The spell that kindled that's a smile's fire,
Is like the light that glows in a sunset's fire.

And, therefore, I a simple hope will sing,
That you and yours may be forever blessed,
And every care that changeful years can bring,
Light as the moonbeam on the river's breast.
